U, OF U. CAMPUS OR S. L. THEATER?

Question Which Faculty and Students Are Discussing up On the Hill.

AS TO GRADUATION IN 1906

College Class Wants to Hold Exercises On the Campus Separate and Apart From Normal Graduates.

With the opening of the second semester at the University of Utah, candidates for graduation are filing their applications, and from present prospects the University will turn out a class twice as large as its nearest previous rival. Instead of the mere handful of college seniors who have shared graduation honors in former years with a large number of normal school graduates, whose work is entirely on a different grade from that of the Univercity, this year the candidates for degrees number 40 students. They are made up of 19 applicants for the degree of bachelor of arts, 15 for the degree of B. S. in mining engineering, 5 for the degree of B. S. in electrical engineering, and I for the degree of B. S. in mechanical engineering.

In addition to the college graduates the normal school will this year turn out 101 graduates, and kindergarten course, 5 graduates, making a total to appear in the graduating exercises, all told, of 146 students, provided the ex-ercises are combined, as usual.

CONSOLIDATION TALK.

But whether they will be combined is considerable of a question. Last year the college students accepted the ultimatus of graduating with those of ultimatus of graduating with those of the normal school, with very little grace, and declared it was a poor recognition of their four years of university work, to have them united at the end with people who hadn't even started university work. The protest of the students then became quite strong, but was abandoned on the explanation from President Kingsbury that the exercises were already arranged for, and it was too late to change the plans. AGITATION EARLY.

This year, however, the agitation is beginning early, both in the faculty and among the students, and it is probable that a lively disagreement will oc-cur before a final program is outlined. The college men are strong in the belief that a college campus does not need a "down town show house" to help out the graduating effect, and that to carry the deremonles off the campus robs the prospective alumnus of much that tender regard for the college walks and halls which he usually carries away from most colleges. If after listening to lectures in the college halls for four years, he must go to a down town show house to receive his degree and become an alumnus, the campus never will grow sacred to the students, and therefore a change is advocated. The college men are perfectly willing to let The college men are strong in the betherefore a change is advocated. The college men are perfectly willing to let the normal exercises be held in the Theater, but they rather favor separate exercises for themselves, on the

Prof Fred Reynolds took a decided stand on the question of campus gradu-ations at the Alumni banquet in June last, favoring the abandoning of the custom of conducting them off the campus, at the earliest practicable date.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

An effort to get at the sentiment in the faculty this year, shows that there is a decided difference of opinion. President Kingsbury declined to express himself, but Prof. Lyman, head of the graduating exercises committee, spoke in favor of separate commencement exercises, but not for a college commence-ment on the campus. He put this, however, on the grounds that the largest available assembly room would still leave a demand for seats, and that therefore the Theater ought to be used as before. "As to holding secarate commencements," he said, "I think that it would be a good idea. There are 40 candidates for degrees and until the work in the Normal school is raised so that degrees are conferred the college graduates should have commencement exercises separate from the normal

ON THE CAMPUS.

Dr. J. F. Merrill, head of the Mining Dr. J. F. Merrill, head of the Mining school, and who acts as president of the university in the absence of President Kingsbury, is against both separate commencements and campus graduations, "I do not think," he declares, "that college and Normal students should have separate commencements. Every graduate has the love of his Alma Mater at heart and consequently no distinction should be made. If we had the facilities I should say we ought to hold the exercises on we ought to hold the exercises on the campus, as they are strictly a college function.

FAVORS NO CHANGE NOW.

Prof. B. R. Howell, who is in charge of the preparatory students, looks for ward to a day when it will be practicable to hold commencements on the campus, but at present thinks it unadvisable, both to hold the exercises on the campus, or to make them separate. DR. EBAUGH'S VIEW.

Dr. W. C. Ebaugh, head of the chemistry department, and also chairman of the committee on graduation, met the tive building was finished campus ex-ercises would be in order, but with the present conditions, the Theater in Salt Lake is the only practicable place.
"I do not favor separate commencement exercises," he sald, "although some distinction should be made between the college and Normal graduates. The plan of holding separate is has proved a fallure at other colleges.

SENIOR CLASS OPINION.

Karl Hopkins, president of the senior class, is taking up the matter of holding the exercises on the campus. "There are enough college graduates this year," he declares, "to make a good showing. They ought to have a chance to graduate on their campus, and also to be separated from the graduates of the Normal school, whose experiences have not been similar to their to their have not been similar to theirs in their four years of work."

The final decision in the matter will probably rest with President Kingsbury and the committees on graduating exercises and on graduation, and how it will be settled cannot be guessed at this time,

AUTHORS' CLUB MEETS.

Definite Steps Taken to Make Move Permanent and Profitable.

The third meeting of the newly formed Authors' club was held last evening at the Carlson studios, and brought together a representative body of local writers. All present expressed themselves as in perfect harmony with the selves as in perfect harmony with the objects of the club, and all were equality determined to push the idea to success. One writer, a lady who is fast coming to the front in the world of letters, stated that the time was ripe for the building up of an inter-mountain literature and that the only means at hand to that end was to aid and encourage western writers through an or-rand to that end was to all and encourage western writers through an organization like the one formed.

The membership of the club is growing, having doubled itself twice in the three weeks of its existence. Club rooms will soon be fitted up, so that the organization will not only have a name organization will not only have a name but a home as well, while Manager Young is already in communication with many publishers of the east. The next meeting will be held at tem-porary sheadquarters next Wednesday

HIGH SCHOOL OVERFLOW.

Will be Met by Adding the Union to Series of Buildings.

The fact that a large increase in the attendance of the High school is expected next "ear is responsible for a plan to increase its size by incorporating the Union school building, as an addition to the other buildings of the campus. The plan, which will necessitate the making of other provisions for the grammar grades now at the Union will be submitted to the board of education at its meeting next Tuesday eve-

At present a large number of children coming from the west side have to cross the Oregon Short Line tracks, and it is designed to have these distributed among the schools on the west side of among the schools on the west side of the tracks, while those coming from the east side can find accommodation at the science building of the High school, lo-cated half a block east of the main

STATE RESTS IN MURDER HEARING.

Dying Statement But it is Ruled Out.

STORY OF EYE-WITNESSES.

Shooting Preceded by Heated Conversation Between Vatrella and Mazza-aLtter Frightened.

The state rested its case this morning in the trial of Frank Mazza, charged with the murder of Joseph Vatrella on Sept. 5, 1905, but it is probable that Dist. Atty. Loofbourow will undertake to introduce in evidence the dying statement of Vatrella before the case finally submitted to the jury. The evidence today was very brief and nothing of an unusual nature was brought out during the examination of the witnesses.

The first witness today was Dr. F. B. Richards, who attended Vatrella after he was taken to the hospital. He deand stated that Vatrella died from the effects of the wound. County Physician Whitney testified that he performed an autopsy over the remains of Vatrella, and stated that the wound which he described caused the man's death.

STATEMENT RULED OUT.

Fred Cerra Aestified that he saw Vatrella at St. Mark's hospital several days before his death and the latter told him that he expected to die. After this evidence Dist. Atty. Loofbourow attempted to introduce Vatrella's dying statement, but it was objected to by statement, but it was objected to by Atty. Newton for the defense and the statement was ruled out pending the production of authorities as to its admissibility by the district attorney.

VATRELLA WAS DRUNK. Emanuel Campani stated that he saw Vatrella about 5 o'clock on the afternoon of the shooting and that the latter was drunk. He also saw him shortly after 7 o'clock that evening and saw Mazza shoot him and saw Vatrella fall. He said that a man by the name of Riley picked Vatrella up. The witness saw Mrs. Mazza after the shooting. The state rested its case at the conclusion of the testimony of Campani and the court adjourned until this afternoon. court adjourned until this afternoon.

WIDOW'S TESTIMONY.

Yesterday afternoon the widow of the murdered man, Mrs. Raffala Vatrella, told the ztory of the shooting. She said that she and her husband and two boarders were eating supper when Mazza called Vatrella out. She went out with her husband and saw Mazza and his wife on the sidewalk in front of the house. When her husband reached the gate she said that Mazza wanted of the house. When her husband reached the gate she said that Mazza wanted to know why her husband had talked so bad to Mrs. Mazza after which statement he shot Vatrella. She said that her husband had no weapon at all when the shooting occurred. Mazza and his wife ran away after the shooting and she helped her husband into the house.

HEARD CONVERSATION.

Joe Sacarino and James Ranini, monly known as Jim Riley, stated that they heard the conversation between Vatrella and Mazza but could not understand all that was said. Sa said that he heard Mazza ask trella why he did not talk better to Mrs. Mazza. Ranini testified that he and Vatrella had been drinking together that afternoon.

James Love and Sadie Burt testified that they were standing across the street at the time of the shooting and heard the men quarreling but could not understand the conversation. They both witnessed the shooting.

MAZZA WAS FRIGHTENED. Capt, Burbidge of the police department, testified that he brought Mazza back from Boulder, Colo., where he was captured. He said that Mazza told him captured. He said that Mazza told him en route to this city that Vatrella had insulted Mrs. Mazza, and that was the reason he shot him. He told Mazza that he might be convicted and hanged for the murder and the man was so frightened that he did not want to leave the train after he arrived here.

WANTS A DIVORCE

Camilla C. Pope Charges Husband With Cruelty and Drunkenness.

Camilla C. Pope today filed suit for divorce in the district court against James M. Pope on the ground of cruelty and habitual drunkenness. They were married in this city on Nov. 12, 1896, and have three children. It is alleged that for more than nine years past defendant has been addicted to the use of intoxicating liquor, and at various times has made violent threats against plaintiff, and has abused her. On Jan. 4, 1906, it is alleged that he ordered her to leave their home and go to her mother, and told her if she did not do it he would starve her to death. She asks for a divorce, the custody of their three children, $25 per month alimony and a reasonable sum for attorney's fees and costs of suit.

ANOTHER UNHAPPY WIFE.

Suit for divorce was filed in the dis trict court today by Rosanna Elswood against F. A. Elswood on the grounds of cruelty and failure to support. The parties were married in Devonshire, England, on June 17,1873, nearly 33 years ago. Plaintiff alleges that for 15 years past her husband has failed to provide her with the common necessaries of life and that for two years past he has beat, whipped and shamefully abused her. They have five children, one of whom is under age. She asks the custody of the minor child.

FORMER JUDGMENT REDUCED.

The jury in the condemnation suit of The jury in the condemnation suit of the Oregon Short Line Railroad company against H. H. OGDEN GETS THE HARRIMAN SHOPS

Attempt to Introduce Victim's Plant to be Concentrated at Junction City Which Will Increase Population.

CENTRAL FOUNDRY THERE.

New Car Shops and Numerous Other Buildings to go up in the Spring.

Following the tearing down of the small shop plant of the Oregon Short Line in this city the announcement is forrhcoming that plans have been submitted in the direction of the concentration of the mechanical plants covering the Harriman systems, at Ogden. Work on the erection of the necessary buildings is to be commenced at once. The plans provide for a new power house, to be erected at the north end of the Southern Pacific shop yard, between the Southern Pacific shop yard, between the blacksmith shop and the round-house. In addition a foundry is to be built, and machinery will be installed and the castings to be used on the entire system of the Oregon Short Line will be made in Ogden. A new oil house and new store rooms are among the buildings also projected.

In addition the plan provides for a new car shop which will be erected south of the machine shop. Each of the present buildings are to be lengthened 250 cet.

Other changes in addition to the relaying the yards as previously outlined embrace the erection of a new freight depot and a viaduct over the tracks. The union depot also is to receive attention and among the improvements will be the installation of umbrelia train sheds which will protect tourists from the rays of the sun in summer and from the rays of the sun in summer and the bite of the blizzard in winter.

The commissary department building adjacent to the depot is nearing completion and when finished provision will be made for handling all the laundry work of the Pullmay company. Taken all in all Ogden is to be congratulated on securing these important improvements which will mean the constant employment of a small army of breadwinners.

The roads have their eyes on a certain strip along the Humbolt river. While the Western Pacific wants it the Southern Pacific has hopes of some day building a cutoff in the vicinity. In order to this strip the Harriman intersts for some time had a force at work. This force consists of one lone laborer provided with a pick, shovel and wheelbarrow. For some months he has been engaged in the herculean task of digging through nearly 1,000 feet of rock and dirt.
